THE CORNER STONE

100

A symbol of our hopes and aims,
Of joys and pleasures all our own,
Reminder sweet of youthful days—
Our memory book, the Corner Stone.

A symbol of our days of work,
Of battles fought and victories won,
To build a greater, nobler school,
To lay of life the Corner Stone.

A symbol of our purpose firm,
To win in life a place our own;
A treasure store of memories fond
For days to come—the Corner Stone.

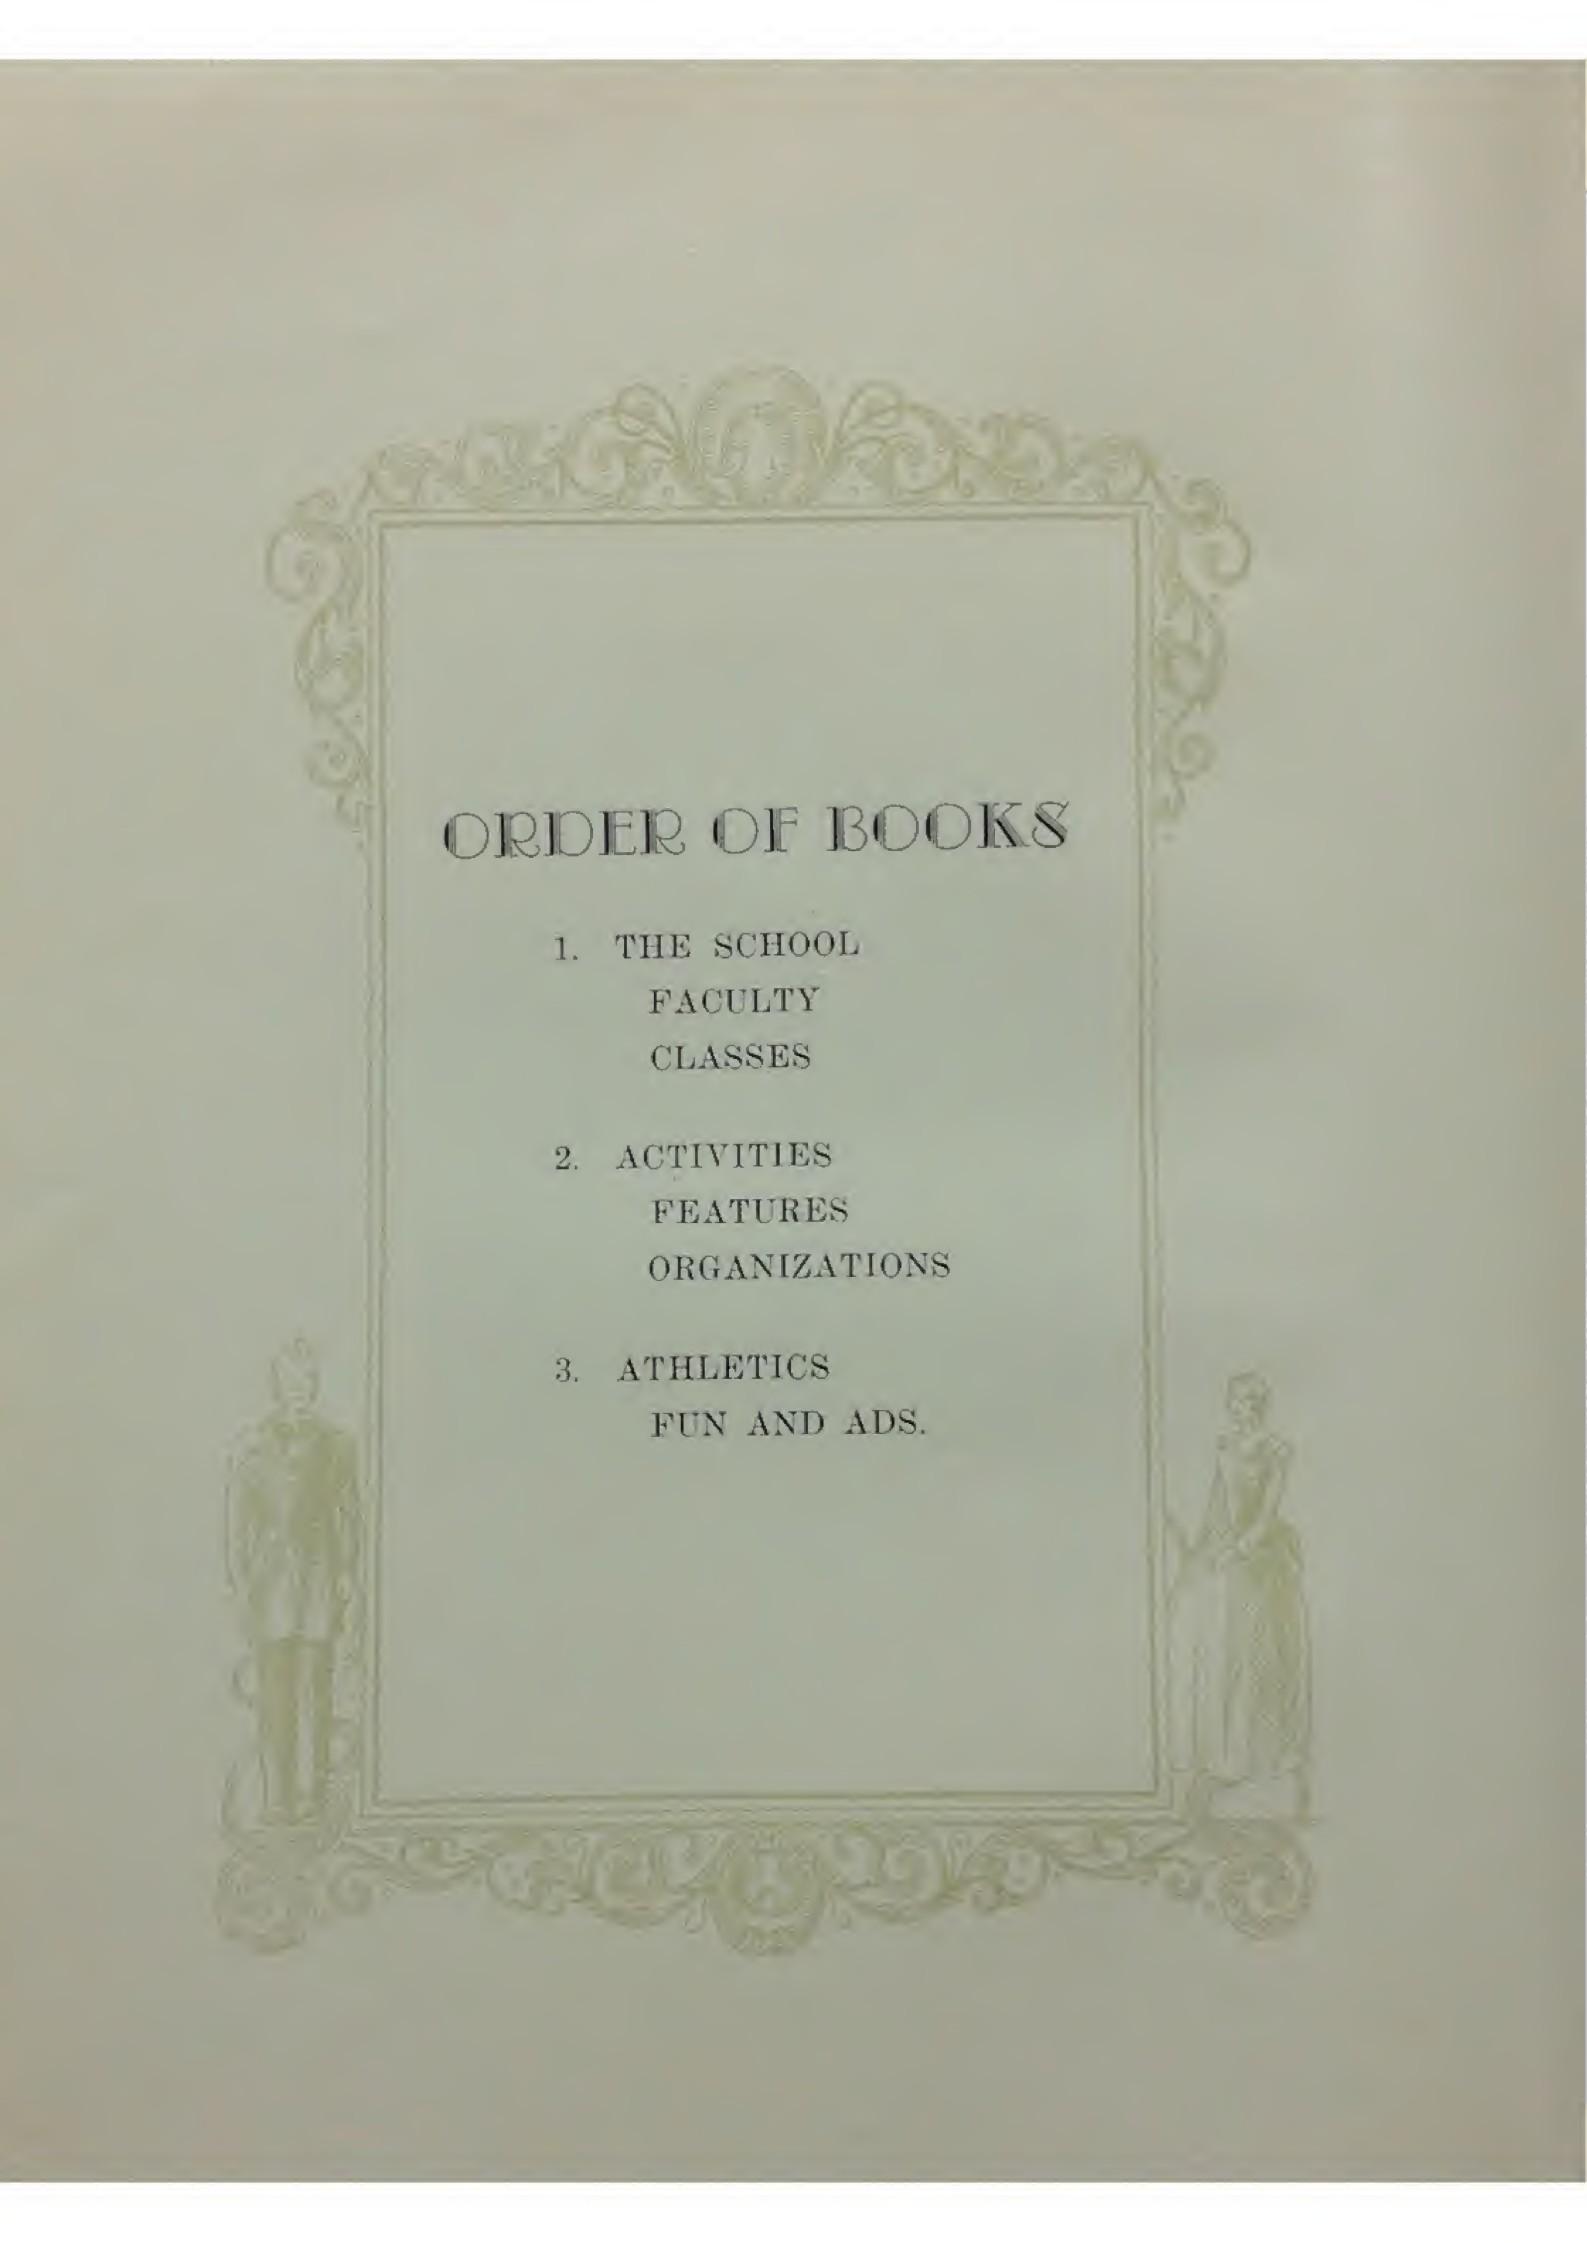

DEDICATION

To one whom we love and admire, believe in and trust, who is a friend that sympathizes with us in our difficulties, who awakens in us a desire for the world's knowledge, who inspires others to finer things by his own high example, we the Annual Staff take great pleasure in dedicating this, the first edition of the Corner Stone, as a token of love and appreciation to

SENIOR CLASS SONG

Fare thee well, our dearest Alma Mater;
We must leave thy cherished halls today,
And go forth to meet the unknown future,
Though yet awhile we fain would with thee stay.

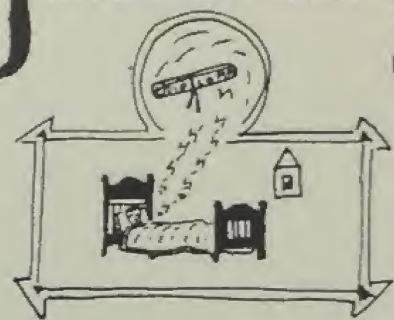

CHORUS

Farewell to thee, farewell to thee;
Fond mem'ries ever turn our hearts this way,
Farewell to thee, farewell to thee;
Rich blessings on thee we pray.

We have loved thee in youth's early morning;
Thou shalt live within our hearts alway;
To thy portals we'll look back with yearning,
When from thy care we've drifted far away.

May we bring great honor to thee ever,
As our life's work we pursue each day,
Finding help and comfort in the teachings
Thou hast strewn all along our youthful way.

THE PAPER STAFF

Energetic, capable, and intelligent—these are the words that best describe Mrs. Burke, chosen from the faculty to lead the paper staff in its initial year. However, it goes without saying that even Mrs. Burke could not have made the paper a creditable spokesman of our school without the untiring labors of some of our most scholarly students. Following are the names of the staff which the school is fortunate in having to set the precedent for the issues of "The Growl" in future years:

"Speak the speech, I pray you, as I pronounce it to you, trippingly on the tongue; but if you mouth it, as many of your players do, I had as lief the town-crier spoke my lines. Nor do not saw the air too much with your hand, thus; but use all gently: for in the very torrent, tempest, and—as I may say—whirlwind of passion, you must acquire and beget a temperance, that may give it smoothness."

The Alethean have done splendid work this year toward the development of students in self-expression. Every member has put his whole heart into it and made it a real live-wire society. It was organized along with the Clio-Phi and there has been some keen competition between the two. However, only the kindest of feeling exists between them.

The Clio-Phi Society is made up of peppy, enthusiastic members who believe in winning what they go after. They've fought a good fight and have broken even in public debates with the Alethean. Each will make a drive for the most new members when school opens next fall.

The way the 1928 Bulldogs stacked up

The 1928 season can be said to be the best ever for Holmes County Junior College. In no games were the Bulldogs held to a tie and in only one they failed to score over two touchdowns. They lost only one conference game and this gives them a strong claim on the Junior College title. The line-up was never fixed but generally read: Meeks, center; Oakes and Ingram, guards; Brewer, Neal or Marshall, tackle; Sorrell and Crews, end; Culpepper, quarter back; Ruby, fullback; and Pettit and Stonestreet, halves. This line-up usually finished as they started due to the fact that only twelve men received letters.

CAPTAIN LEONARD STONESTREET

LEFT HALF

Stonestreet came to Holmes from the crack McAdams sectional championship team, where he played for four years. He was one of the smoothest running backs seen in Junior College football. He was named on every all state Junior College team that was published. He always gave his best and always gave plenty. His running and passing was the deciding feature in more games than one.

COACH ROY "PAPA" HARTNESS

Under the splendid and efficient direction of "Papa" Hartness Holmes County Junior College has produced one of the best football teams in the state. The clean smooth, rapid playing that he taught the boys was worthy of praise. He came to us just off of the A. & M. Varsity where he was known as one of the best players ever in school there.

Crews

Meeks

Sorrell

Culpepper

Ruby

Pettit

SIDNEY "JEW" CREWS

END

Crews, snappy little end, came to us from Canton where he put up four years of real football. His long, high spirals stamped him as the best punter in Junior College football. "Jew" was a hard fighting end and, being fast, he was usually on the receiving end of Stonestreets passes. His kicking and catches in the Delta State game were absolutely uncanny. He will be a great asset to the squad in 1929.

CURTIS "LASSES" MEEKS

CENTER

Meeks came up from last year's team. He was the hardest fighting linesman on the team. "Lasses" was good in defence as well as a dependable man to have around on the offence. His play throughout the entire season was good, but his work at the latter part of the schedule showed him as a center with a future.

CHARLES SORRELL

END

Charles made the best end player in the year's football season that Holmes County has ever had. Even though he was seriously handicapped by an injured knee practically every football practice of the season found him there on the field with his brow drawn together in a determined frown. Sorrell's determination seemed to be a challenge that he threw out to his bad knee. His tackles were absolutely unexcelled and he had a mysterious little way always getting down under punts.

RALPH CULPEPPER

QUARTER

Culpepper was a regular on the Miss. A. & M. freshman team last year. Ralph was a demon on defence. He could outthink and outfight what more could a coach want in a player? Culpepper is the only man on the squad that will not be back next year. He will take a fling at the A. & M. varsity and will make some good man hustle to keep him off. The absence of Culpepper will leave a sore spot in the heart of the Bulldog supporters.

"PETE" RUBY

FULL BACK

Pete the hard running, hard hitting, twisting, sliding, squirming full-back came to Holmes from the fast Webster County Aggies. He played a season at Mississippi Heights. Pete seemed to be at his best this season. He is fast and it was heaven to see him step through Perkinson over at Lexington and get under punts. Pete could plow a line to pieces but a broken field was all he needed for a little jaunt up the field. "Pete" will also be back next year.

Neal

Oaks

Marshal

Mason

Craig

Brewer

BENNIE PETTIT

RIGHT HALF

Bennie is the kind of back who takes the knocks so that others may gain. Coach Hartness brought with him the Iowa style of football. This style called for a No. 2 back who seldom carried the ball, and whose main work was to carry the opposing tackle for a ride—and the ride he gave some tackles! His blocking and tackling was something to smile about.

RUSSELL "JABO" NEAL

TACKLE

Neal came to the team from Canton, a team mate of Crews. There he played tackle as it should be played and continued to do likewise with the Bulldogs. "Jabo" is a typical Irishman and one of the hardest fighters on the squad. He was a sure tackler and great offence. An injured shoulder was a hindrance the latter part of the season, but his play throughout the entire season was exceptionally good. We're all expecting great things of Russell next year.

RONNIE OAKES

GUARD

Lonnie is another all state man, the only man of last year's team. He was a terror in defense. He repeatedly blocked punts, passes and was always on a loose ball. Oaks always gave his best and fought until the last whistle. His ability at diagnosing plays was one of his main assets and it was this quality of his that saved the Bulldogs more than once. He showed great guns in '29.

BRUCE "HOOT" MARSHALL

GUARD

"Hoot" is the boy from Tchula. There he played a star role and continued to play the same for Holmes. Marshall was a good man to have on anyone's team. He was sure tackler and great on offence. It gives the Bulldogs a sort of a satisfaction to know that Marshall will be back in '29.

JAMES "LARD" BREWER

TACKLE

Lard, the boy with the giant frame and 230 pounds avoirdupois. He was fast and a sure tackler. He was a terror to the opposition both on offense and defense. He was in the thick of the fight in every game, and on defense repeatedly stopped the opposing backs before they could reach the line of scrimmage. He showed himself capable in any and all company. "Lard" will be back next year, and great things are expected of him.

Montgomery

Ingram

. Stewart

Team

DORMAN "FARO" INGRAM

GUARD

"Faro's" playing throughout the season was good. He is tall and strong as a bull yearling. Add to this the fact that he can and does fight and you have all the ingredients for a football player. Such a man is Ingram and he should be better next season.

THE SCRUBS

In a large way the scrubs were responsible for the wonderful team we had this year. They were the ones who gave them the daily hard practice play in order to keep them in trim for their games. They are due a great credit for keeping the stiff upper lip of a real sport and for being willing to take the hard knocks, bruises and sprains with no compensation and no trips and yet keep training. They silently carried on their hard work without any grunts or gripes about the difficulty of their task.

CHEER LEADERS

ETHELYN BYNACKER

"Pineapple" is all pep, enthusiasm and patience, an unfailing combination in leadership. She has achieved miracles in generating enthusiasm.

OTIS MABRY

Throughout the year Otis has served faithfully, combining pep, ingenuity and leadership in such a way that it has spelled unmistakable success.

"Fight team fight,
Fight team fight,
Fight team, fight team,
Fight, fight, fight."

MISS LUCILLE GRAY

COACH

Coach Gray has been the power behind the throne. Her unselfish devotion and determination to win has won for her a place in the heart of every girl who came out for ball this season. She has been the spirit of the team, always right there with a loyalty that has been an unfailing inspiration.

CAPTAIN INEZ CARPENTER

CENTER

The Holmes Winged-Feet during the past two years have been inspired by the spirit of their faithful captain, quick and steady, always fighting to the last second with a spirit that was never broken.

DORIS ANN CRAIG—BUSINESS MANAGER

GUARD

Like a shadow is Doris. Always with her forward. Her team work is excellent, and her fighting spirit is never discouraged.

ELBERTA BUSH

GUARD

Elberta as a guard has proved to be one of the best defensive players to don the Maroon and White. She is quick, accurate, dependable. Holmes County Junior College values her highly.

OVIA GORDON

FORWARD

Ovia is all ready when called upon and holds down her post as forward with spirit and ability. She is sturdy, untiring, and co-operative. This is her last year in Holmes Junior College, but we can look back on her ball playing career and say, "Well Done."

EULA MITCHELL

FORWARD

If honor was for one who never failed, one who was always fighting for the honor of Holmes County, one whose clever playing helped win the game, it would be for Eula Mitchell.

JENNIE MAE BAKER

FORWARD

"Practice makes perfect", therefore Pat is perfect. She is always ready to snap into place when the time comes, never doubting her shots for the goal to be anything except, two points, and always being dependable for the shots.

LEILA McLELLAN

CENTER

The dependent attitude of the Holmes Winged-Feet toward Leila never failed. No little of the team's success has been due to her efforts. She is always ready to jump and always knocks it into side center's hands.

MABEL McLELLAN

GUARD

She is steady, untiring and co-operative, always watching her business, never losing the ball on account of finding attractions elsewhere. Although she never gets excited and plays too hard, she always comes to the line with the ball.

BETTIE McLELLAN

FORWARD

No basket ball team is better than its offense and no offense could be better then the game Betty has played the entire season. The team that lost Betty lost a treasure.

VERNA EUBANKS

CENTER

Like the flashing of the eye is our fast running center. Three seconds after the ball is knocked it is in her hands ready to be thrown into her forward's hands. This of our Verna.

EULA LEE ALEXANDER

FORWARD

The fact that Eula Lee didn't play the whole season was not because she wasn't one of the best. She gave her enthusiasm, time, and support.

NINA WADDELL

CENTER

It pays to jump high when you knock the ball over your opponent's head and by splendid pass work win two points for your side; therefore Nina has always paid.

As the Corner Stone goes to press, members of the 1929 baseball team are beginning their daily workouts. The squad this year bids fair to become one of the best that the Bulldogs have ever boasted. With Pete Ruby, star catcher, as captain, The Batsmen of '29 are going to attempt to hang up a record that will long be remembered.

Cooper, Stonestreet and Pettus, pitchers, will be contending for honors as slab artists. Ruby and Meyers will constitute the receiving end of the battery.

Winborn, Smith, Sorrell, Meyers, Stonestreet and B. Montgomery are candidates for the infield; while Ousley, Campbell, E. Montgomery, T. Montgomery, Crews, Moody, Stewart and others will be out chasing flies for positions in the outfield.

The schedule for the coming season includes games with Millsaps Freshmen, Sunflower Junior College, Mississippi College Freshmen, Hinds Junioir College, Copiah-Lincoln Junior College, pending.

DEBATE IN FACULTY MEETING

A very heated discussion at the last faculty meeting on a law presented by Coach Hartness and backed by Mrs. Craig—The opposing side was headed by Mr. Burke with a noble second, Miss Van Osdel. After old business had been attended to Mr. McDaniel called for any new business. At this opportune minute Mr. Hartness arose and read his bill. He had not more than regained his seat

BOYS OF H. C. A. H. S. & JR. COLLEGE HIKE THREE MILES TO RENDER AID TO FARMER IN DISTRESS.

Mr. Hayseed a nearby farmer and supporter of the school called on Mr. McDaniel late yesterday eve to thank him for the use of his students' labor, who gave their aid so willingly during his rush season.

Pete Ruby, Russell Neal, Lard Brewer, Jewel Carpenter, Dorman Ingram and McGee Williamson turned out in full force to aid Mr. Alfalfa Hayseed in gathering his crop of sugar cane. The boys agreed to help him at nite for the weather thru the day was exceedingly warm. No pay was accepted by the boys, however, when Mr. McDaniel found out how willing and anxious the boys were to work he got up in chapel one morning and made a speech on "Helping others when in need," and afterward had the Cheer Leaders to lead the student body in giving 15 raha for Boys, Boys, working Boys, which ended up by announcing a holiday in honor of them.

TWO STUDENTS DECLARED INSANE

Albert Nollinger and Doris Ann Craig have been declared insane by two specialists from Jackson who analyzed the fits they threw last Sunday Nite.

Lillian Henderson, a new girl, is still in a raving condition but there is a little hope given for her, according to the report from Dr. Mabry last night. This is the first indication Alberta has ever shown of being mentally deranged. However, Doris Ann had one spell soon

'TWAS THANKSGIVING MORN

'Twas Thanksgiving morn when all through the house
Not a teacher was stirring, not even a mouse.
The valises were packed by the students with care,
With the hope that their parents would soon be there.
Mr. Mack nestled all snug in his bed While visions of touchdowns danced through his head.
When upon the piano there arose such a clatter,
He sprang from his bed to see what was the matter.
Clad in his pajamas he flew like a flash.
And straight for the stairs he made a big dash.
With one great bound to the landing he came
And he yelled and he shouted, and called them by names;
"Now Eva, now Laura, and now Jennie Mae
Inez, Alberta and Frank Ellis Gray.
Back to your beds girls! Out of that hall!
Cut it out! Cut it out! Everyone of y'all."
As dry leaves that before the wild hurricane fly
When they meet with an obstacle, mount to the sky,
So back to their bedroom the guilty ones flew
All trembling and frightened and giggling, too.
And now Prof. in his bedroom, "I'll be Dern,
I hope my dreams will deign to return."

THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT
OF THE CLASS OF '29

We the members of the class of Holmes County Agricultural High School and Junior College, State of Mississippi, United States of America, having come to the end of our college career, and knowing what a loss we will be to our Alma Mater, and being not mentally deranged, do hereby make our last will and testament.

To the faculty we will the privilege of giving each student as many reprimands as they desire, and our wise suggestion to have as lengthy faculty meetings as possible without interfering with the classes.

To the College Freshman the privilege of feeling that important air that all Seniors feel.

To the High School Seniors the privilege of staying in their room during vacant periods.

To the High School Juniors the right of patiently waiting for their Senior year.

To the Freshmen the privilege of leading a pup's life here among the "Bulldogs."

Doris Craig wills to Lillian Henderson her privilege of making announcements in chapel, at breakfast, dinner, and supper each day.

Selma Mabry wills her typewriter to Lotta Payne.

Clarence Wheeler his ability to memorize and recite memory work to Mary Catherine Haffey.

Ovia Gordon her power to giggle to Morris Cauthen.

Ralph Culpepper his by-word "I'm going home to stay in a few days" to Pinkey Weir.

Jennie Mae Baker wills her nerve of asking Miss Van Osdel for permission to spend the night with Inez to Jennie G. Montague.

Cordie Mae Simpson her winning smiles to Nelms Flowers.

Annie Mae English her modesty to Eleanor Pickering.

Otis Mabry his power of deviating to Marion Ousley.

Lucille Cooper her privilege of coming from Durant every day to school to Hazel McNeer.

Martha Taylor her pet name "Jew Baby" to Earl Skelton.

J. T. Parkinson his habit of following Oswald Pettus to Wade Oliver.

Ruby Cooper getting to meet the faculty, the greatest thrill of all, to Delle Ousley.

We appoint as our executor of this,

Lillie Killebrew: "I use red lipstick but I don't need it."

Charles Schrock: "Gosh, I say you don't; a bum road needs no stop signals."

Mr. Mac: "I haven't any sympathy for a man who drinks."

Doyle Smith: "Neither have I. Only envy."

Elberta Bush: "Who's the tightest guy on the campus?"

Eula Mitchell: "Bennie Pettit. He fell in front of a steam roller and turned side ways so it wouldn't take the crease out of his trousers."

James Stewart: "I've learned my lesson. I'm through with women."

Red Rand: "And I've learned mine. I'm through saying I'm through with women."

Mrs. Burke: "Why does Sidney keep walking up and down past the girls' dormitory?"

Mrs. Craig: "He's window shopping".

Coach: "Had any experience?"

Tucker Montgomery: "Yep, played left end once in a minstrel show."

Miller Daves: "Where you wanna go, Baby?"

Eva Melton: "Let's go buy-buy".

Mr. McDaniel and Mr. Oliphant attended the Junior College meeting in Jackson a few days ago and managed to break away from their wives for a quiet little dinner together in a cafe. At the end of the dinner the waiter asked; "Shall I bring in a couple of demitasses?"

"Gosh no", replied Mr. McDaniel, "Our wives may come in any minute."

Eula Lee: "Is it dangerous to drive with one hand?"

Andrew: "You bet. More than one fellow has run into a church doing it."

Booster Algood: "How can you avoid hitting your finger when driving a nail?"

Mr. Burke: "Hold the hammer with both hands."

our last will and testament, Mr. M. C. McDaniel.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our hand and seal this the 17th day of May, nineteen hundred and twenty nine.

Class of '29.

FAVORITE SONG OF ELEVENTH GRADE

Inez Carpenter: "The Prisoner's Song."
Sydney Crews: "I Wish I Had Died in My Cradle."
Miller Davis: "One Sweet Letter from You."
Dorman Ingram: "You Wanted Someone to Play with, I Wanted Somebody to Love."
Lois Brown: "The Song is Ended."
Lottie Payne: "All By Myself in the Moonlight."
Frank Ellis Gray: "Happy Days, Lonely Nights."
Nellie Carnes: "You're a Real Sweetheart."
Neims Flowers: "Where the Shy Little Violet Grows."
Curtis Meeks: "Show me the Way to go Home."
Ernestine Albin: "Is She My Girl Friend?"
Everett Montgomery: "We Ain't Never Been to College."
J. R. Moody: "That's My Weakness Now."
Jennie K. Montague: "Mine, All Mine."
Puppy Smith: "She's the Sweetheart of Six Other Guys."
Pete Ruby: "Big Blonde Mama."
Nina Waddell: "You're the Cream of My Coffee."
Booster Algood: "Because I Love You."
Francis McClesky: "Memories."
Vivian Ammons: "To-morrow."
Verna Eubanks: "My Little Grey Home in the West."
Annie Siddon: "Daises Won't Tell."

FAVORITE SAYINGS OF THE FACULTY

(Without help from anyone see how many of these you can guess.)
"In fact, when I was in Vicksburg."
"I want this noise cut out, right now."
"Well, he's doing splendid work for me."
"Oh, yes you can; go ahead and try."
"Girls, you can't sew and talk at the same time."
"I'd like to have as many boys as possible to work on the Gym."
"We'll expect all rooms and halls to be ready for inspection."
"But you know that was your assignment."
"Your last parallel reading was rejected."
"You all quit that meowing out there."
"I'd like to remind the students about library books."

They are picking up the pieces
With a shovel and a rake.
Because Andrew used his arm
When he should have used his brake.

To every person comes his day,
So calmly wait your chance.
Pedestrians have the right of way,
When in the ambulance.

Sidney Crews: "If you refuse me I shall never love another."

Pineapple: "Will that hold true if I accept you?"

Mr. Burke: "There's a student in this class who's making a fool of himself. When he's finished, I'll commence."

Mr. Oliphant says while he was in Vicksburg, he bought some furniture that went back to Henry the Eighth. (The rest went back the first of the month.)

Otis Mabry: "Did you hear about 'Faro' being two-thirds married to Roy Hilton?"

Pinkey—"No, how come?"

Otis—"Well, Faro is willing, and so is the preacher."

Mr. McDaniel: "Bruce, return thanks please."

Bruce: "Allright, Thanks."

Mrs. Craig: "Which would you rather be, an oyster or a college student?"

Earl Skelton: "A college student of course. The oyster only gets stewed once in a life time."

Bettie McLellan: "What cha' been doing?"

Mable McLellan: "Taking part in a guessing contest."

Bettie: "I thought you had a math exam."

Mable: "I did."

Mr. Burke: "What is a dogma?"

J. R.: "A Mama dog."

Oswald Pettus: "One swallow doesn't make a summer."

Claude Harthcock: "No, but one swallow has made lots of noses bloom."

Gypsy: "I tella your fortune, mister."

Henry Williams: "How much?"

Gypsy: "Twenty-five cents."

Henry: "Correct. How did you guess it?"

To Inexperienced Eyes

TO-DAY, one thousand dollars may seem a staggering amount of money to your wife, but ask some widow who has passed through the crisis what $1,000 actually meant to her.

Where it usually goes

Doctors fees and hospital bills	$300.00
Current household expenses	200.00
Cemetery lot and tombstone	200.00
Burial expenses and mourning clothes	300.00
	$1,000.00

Life insurance is the quickest and easiest way to secure a substantial estate.

If you are interested in protecting your widow as generously as you now provide for your wife, expert consultation is available to you without obligation.

We believe that the future development and continued prosperity of our commonwealth depends largely on the carrying into effect the forward educational movement and programme as outlined by our State Department of Education. The development of Standard Junior Colleges at strategic points is one of the most important items in this programme. Our Holmes County Junior College qualifies, so far as location is concerned, and in making rapid strides in its programme of development, as suggested by the Junior College Accrediting Commission, and will no doubt soon take its rightful place as one of the few Standard Junior Colleges of Mississippi. The people of Holmes County, and this section of Mississippi, should rally to the support of our Junior College and not be satisfied until we make of it the very best.

We are for our school and offer to it our best service and support.
